Positive vs. Negative

Have you ever noticed how easy it is to center your thoughts on something that might have happened that didn't make you happy or comfortable? How easy it is to simply remember the one negative act or conversation that one might have had. Those negative things are exactly what Satan wants us to think about and act upon. Those things almost always lead to divisions and/or work stoppages.

Thank goodness Jesus has us thinking on the positive things now. We are blessed and growing. Look at our numbers. Wow! We all can think of those who need a positive pat on the back, encouragement, reasons for coming back to work. It can start with us here today. You are loved and so much needed here now and forever. God bless you all.

(continued from page 1) The secret is to recognize that both in plenty and in want, God is in control, contentment exists and this world is not our home. By the providence and purpose of God, Egypt was blessed and privileged to have Joseph preparing for the coming famine while the rest of the world would experience the full impact of the famine (Genesis 41:56-57). May it be when plenty is forgotten that we remember the words of David, I have been young, and now am old; Yet I have not seen the righteous forsaken, Nor his descendants begging bread (Psalm 37:25).

All The Plenty Will Be Forgotten

Genesis 41:28 This is the thing which I have spoken to Pharaoh. God has shown Pharaoh what He is about to do. 29 Indeed seven years of great plenty will come throughout all the land of Egypt; 30 but after them seven years of famine will arise, and all the plenty will be forgotten in the land of Egypt; and the famine will deplete the land.

Do you remember when Pharaoh was greatly troubled because of his disturbing dreams in Genesis 41? The ancient record tells us, "Now it came to pass in the morning that his spirit was troubled, and he sent and called for all the magicians of Egypt and all its wise men. And Pharaoh told them his dreams, but there was no one who could interpret them for Pharaoh" (Genesis 41:8). Thanks to Pharaoh's butler, Joseph was summoned from prison and told the details of Pharaoh's dreams. Joseph told Pharaoh, "The dreams of Pharaoh are one; God has shown Pharaoh what He is about to do" (Genesis 41:25). Pharaoh learns of the future, 7 years of abundance followed by 7 years of famine. And he learns the severe famine is going to wipe out the memory of plenty. "So the plenty will not be known in the land because of the famine following, for it will be very severe" (Genesis 41:25). The Hebrew word for severe is used to describe a load that is too heavy to bear, that which is grievous, oppressive and difficult to endure. It would be at this time that all the plenty will be forgotten.

Do you remember when gas prices were below $2.00 per gallon? Some may remember when gas prices stayed below 50 cents a gallon through the 60s. Others will even remember 1980, when the average price of gas first went over $1 a gallon. However, those days are long forgotten, especially with the current pain at the pump. Because of the price increases in fuel, groceries, and other necessities of life, folks are often talking about how they are going to survive financially in the days ahead. News stories feature interviews with people telling how the higher prices have impacted and disrupted their lives. They explain the difficulties with making their dollars stretch far enough to cope.

Good news! Genesis 41 can help us in a time when plenty is forgotten. First and foremost, Joseph made it clear that the one and only great God of heaven is in control. "And the dream was repeated to Pharaoh twice because the thing is established by God, and God will shortly bring it to pass" (Genesis 41:32). Secondly, true peace is only found in faith and trust in the almighty God. "Joseph answered Pharaoh, saying, 'It is not in me; God will give Pharaoh an answer of peace'" (Genesis 41:16). It is very easy in prosperous times to be at peace mentally and emotionally. Sadly, many people forget in prosperity that they need God. However, life can change from plenty to want very quickly. Genesis 41:56 tells us that this "famine was over all the face of the earth." As the apostle Paul told the Christians at Philippi, "Not that I speak from need, for I have learned to be content in whatever circumstances I am. I know how to get along with little, and I also know how to live in prosperity; in any and every circumstance I have learned the secret of being filled and going hungry, both of having abundance and suffering need" (Philippians 4:11-12 nasb).
